LOCATION

The property is prominently located on the north side of Lincoln's Inn Gardens and benefits from excellent public transport facilities, providing good access to all parts of central London.

Situated less than a 5 minutes' walk from Chancery Lane (Central line) and Holborn (Piccadilly and Central lines) underground stations, with Farringdon (Metropolitan, Circle, Hammersmith & City and Elizabeth lines) station within a 10-minute walk.

Developed as a medieval suburb of the City, this area of central London makes the connection between the City and the West End. Holborn has been traditionally popular with the legal fraternity, although the area has recently attracted more diverse occupiers including Sainsbury's and Warner Brothers.

The weekday market at Leather Lane has been in operation for 400 years, serving anyone from workers looking for a lunchtime feed to hipsters seeking a coffee shop hangout.
